

review - level 4 (lessons 10-18)

After the previous nine chapters...

- I can talk about jealousy.
- I can do a test in Dutch to find out how jealous I am.
- I can talk about the celebration of special events.
- I can understand a text about proponents and opponents of Dutch Kings Day.
- I can talk about money.
- I know how to negotiate.
- I understand 10 expressions about money.
- I can talk about my view on money and spending.
- I can talk about highly skilled migrants.
- I can understand a text about different opinions regarding changing plans of the government.
- I can talk about going on a double date.
- I can talk about dating.
- I can understand a text about do's and don'ts on a double date.
- I can talk about life's challenges.
- I can understand a text about dream jobs.
- I can talk about (joining) clubs and associations.
- I know why clubs and associations are so important for the Dutch.
- I can understand a text based on data from the Dutch Social Cultural Planning Institute.
- I can talk about visiting the in-laws.
- I can understand advice how to behave during the first visit to Dutch parents-in-law.
- I can talk about achievements.
- I can understand a column about doing nothing.

I have learned Dutch grammar:

#dutchgrammar-2

- 33: the relative pronoun + the relative subclause
 34: the relative subclause: prepositions
 35: the relative subclause: wat
 36: the relative subclause: waar

I know...

- I know how and when to use a relative pronoun.
- I know different ways to make a relative subclause.
- I know how and when to use the relative pronoun wat.
- I know how and when to use the relative pronoun waar.

#dutchgrammar-3

1: the past perfect

2: the past perfect:

hadden or waren

3: the past perfect in the subclause

4: toen + past perfect

5: past tense or past perfect

6: double infinitives

7: hun + singular/plural noun

8: the demonstrative pronoun

9: no article

10: phrases with prepositions

11: multiple verbs in the subclause

12: perfect tense: verbs + te

13: verbs + (te) + infinitive in the present tense

14: double infinitives in the present tense

15: double infinitives in the future tense

- I know how and when to use the past perfect.
- I know when to use hadden or waren in the past perfect.
- I know how to use the past perfect in the subclause.
- I know different meanings of the word toen and how to use it.
- I know how and when to use the conjunctions nadat and voordat.
- I know when to use the past tense or the past perfect.
- I know how and when to use double infinitives.
- I know some special verb construction in the past perfect.

- I know that hun can be followed by a singular or plural noun.
- I know new demonstrative pronouns.

- I know 5 new situations when we do not use an article in front of a noun.

- I know that phrases that start with a preposition can take the last place in the sentence.
- I know what to do with multiple verbs in the subclause.
- I know what to do with verbs + te in the perfect tense.
- I know what to do with verbs + (te) + infinitive in the present tense.
- I know how and when to use double infinitives in the present tense.
- I know how and when to use double infinitives in the future tense.